If parents cannot pick up the rating sheets during the PTC, they should schedule an appointment through the class adviser. 5. All participants must arrive promptly within the designated conference timeframe. The class advisers will not extend the schedule beyond 12:00 PM to accommodate late arrivals. 6. Parents or guardians wishing to speak with a particular subject teacher must schedule an appointment through the class adviser. All appointments will be arranged by the class adviser in collaboration with the relevant subject teacher, grade level coordinators, and the school principal. Impromptu or unscheduled discussions will NOT be accommodated.

The said PTC will be conducted to distribute the students' rating sheets indicating their quarterly performance and to communicate concerns and ideas of parents, guardians, and class advisers regarding students' welfare and holistic development. Parents' involvement in the students' education is incredibly important, and these conferences allow us to work together to ensure their academic success. During the conference, class advisers will discuss the students' achievements, areas of improvement, and strategies to support their growth.

All provisions inconsistent with this Department Memorandum are repealed. The provisions in this Memorandum shall remain in force and effect until rescinded or amended. Inquiries and clarifications on this matter may be raised to the Office of the Vice President for Basic Education and the below-mentioned grade level coordinators.

Immediate dissemination and compliance with the provisions in this Memorandum are directed and expected. Thank you.
